2 Pet. 1:20

The Scripture is not a blank screen waiting to receive whatever significance we decide to project upon it. It is unthinkable that God would graciously reveal Himself in His written word and then submit its meaning to our personal judgment.

2 Pet. 2:3-4

The harshest language is reserved for those who willfully promote false doctrine because nothing is more detrimental to the purposes of Christ or the health of the human soul than to “exchange the truth of God for a lie.”

2 Pet. 1:21

Leave it to the Bible to give us such an elegantly succinct and thoroughly theological description of its own inspiration: “men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.”
