So then, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your salvation with fear and trembling; 13 for it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure.

What happens to these focuses in our daily lives? Where do they fit throughout our day, even in our desire to live and please God?

- Compete with other habits, so lose focus on them
- Content with amount we have of many of them
- Must connect these to our desire to live to please God; they are attached to divine nature God saved you to share; must ask Him to change our will
- These get lost in “fleshly” moments of day; takes “mind of Christ” to see them throughout daily tasks
- Perhaps so afraid we can’t get it, that we miss the resources God has given to work these in our lives
- Not even there
- Other voices like fear of man, performance, self-centeredness, own logic
- When “grow up” with these, then set a standard- we are center & neglect to look higher – scripture, God of scripture
- Not aware that there is more/ can’t handle what we have, so don’t want more
- Takes diligence, intention
- Can’t check these off list – must be constantly on our minds so we continue to focus on them
- Forget the means & motive for them & try to do on our own

8 For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor unfruitful in the true knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his purification from his former sins.

Who is concerned about being useful/fruitful? What feelings and identity issues are addressed in verse 8?

- Living in Christ
- Mission-minded
- For survival (do or else) or for purpose (life-giving)
- Identity issues – affirmation VS rejection
- Moral standard – right or wrong purpose
- Identity tied w/ specific usefulness
- Depths of your soul (motive level)
- What is our true utility? i.e.) those who trust God – that is useful from this flow- useful disposition, actions
- People overwhelmed w/ grace of God in salvation
- Those afraid of judgment
- All of us need to be concerned (good steward of what God has been given us)

“Some of the most effective Christians I have known are people without dramatic talents and special abilities, or even exciting personalities; yet God has used them in a marvelous way. Why? Because they are becoming more and more like Jesus Christ. They have the kind of character and conduct that God can trust with blessing. They are fruitful because they are faithful; they are effective because they are growing in their Christian experience.”

How would we focus our energies on these character traits in a way that would evidence the work of God—a result of faith, meaning effort IN God's presence? What might that include OR what would be signs our growth is NOT a result of God's power or inside living relationship with God?

- Rom 4:18-20 – lifting up the promises of God
- By periodic spiritual check-ups that looks for which of these is missing because healthy growth will have these flowing from + building on each other
- Look for evidence that the change/work done is result of look beyond ourselves and immediate results (faithful and joyful service)
- First direction we head when trying to grow in these shows source i.e.) prayer – dependence – shows where help comes from and who we are seeking to please
- Looking to grow in humility – are you praying for this
- Proverbs 2:4 fervor, zeal, work—that life FILLED w this characteristic in looking for God's kingdom purposes throughout our day—preparation in this vein
