

A close-up photograph of a person's hands operating a winch on a boat. The winch is a polished metal device with a central core and two side plates. A thick, white rope with blue stitching is being wound onto the core. The person is wearing a dark blue jacket. In the background, the blue ocean and a white steering wheel are visible under a bright sky.

“Do You Have The Anchor?”

Hebrews 6:13-20

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come
2. Promises are a large part of life

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come
2. Promises are a large part of life
3. But promises are only as good as the one making it

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come
2. Promises are a large part of life
3. But promises are only as good as the one making it

II. It Is God Making the Promise

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come
2. Promises are a large part of life
3. But promises are only as good as the one making it

II. It Is God Making the Promise

1. It should come out of relationship

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come
2. Promises are a large part of life
3. But promises are only as good as the one making it

II. It Is God Making the Promise

1. It should come out of relationship
2. God desires to give His children confidence

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come
2. Promises are a large part of life
3. But promises are only as good as the one making it

II. It Is God Making the Promise

1. It should come out of relationship
2. God desires to give His children confidence
3. His purpose is unchangeable

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

1. Promise = declaration of something to come
2. Promises are a large part of life
3. But promises are only as good as the one making it

II. It Is God Making the Promise

1. It should come out of relationship
2. God desires to give His children confidence
3. His purpose is unchangeable

III. Abraham Is the Example

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

II. It Is God Making the Promise

1. It should come out of relationship
2. God desires to give His children confidence
3. His purpose is unchangeable

III. Abraham Is the Example

1. God promised Abraham

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

II. It Is God Making the Promise

1. It should come out of relationship
2. God desires to give His children confidence
3. His purpose is unchangeable

III. Abraham Is the Example

1. God promised Abraham
2. Abraham took the risk

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

II. It Is God Making the Promise

1. It should come out of relationship
2. God desires to give His children confidence
3. His purpose is unchangeable

III. Abraham Is the Example

1. God promised Abraham
2. Abraham took the risk
3. Abraham obtained the promises

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

II. It Is God Making the Promise

III. Abraham Is the Example

1. God promised Abraham

2. Abraham took the risk

3. Abraham obtained the promises

IV. You as an Heir of His Promises

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

II. It Is God Making the Promise

III. Abraham Is the Example

1. God promised Abraham
2. Abraham took the risk
3. Abraham obtained the promises

IV. You as an Heir of His Promises

1. If you have fled to His refuge

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

II. It Is God Making the Promise

III. Abraham Is the Example

1. God promised Abraham
2. Abraham took the risk
3. Abraham obtained the promises

IV. You as an Heir of His Promises

1. If you have fled to His refuge
2. If you have The Anchor

I. The Promises – v.13, 15, 17

II. It Is God Making the Promise

III. Abraham Is the Example

IV. You as an Heir of His Promises

1. If you have fled to His refuge

2. If you have The Anchor

3. The Anchor is your forerunner