

“A COVENANT OF BLOOD”

Hebrews 9:15-22

I. The First Covenant

I. The First Covenant

1. There must be a death
-

I. The First Covenant

1. There must be a death
 2. Death is symbolized by the shedding of blood
-

I. The First Covenant

1. There must be a death
 2. Death is symbolized by the shedding of blood
 3. The first Covenant was instituted with the shedding of blood
-

I. The First Covenant

1. There must be a death
2. Death is symbolized by the shedding of blood
3. The first Covenant was instituted with the shedding of blood

II. The New Covenant

I. The First Covenant

1. There must be a death
2. Death is symbolized by the shedding of blood
3. The first Covenant was instituted with the shedding of blood

II. The New Covenant

1. A death has taken place
-

I. The First Covenant

1. There must be a death
2. Death is symbolized by the shedding of blood
3. The first Covenant was instituted with the shedding of blood

II. The New Covenant

1. A death has taken place
 2. Jesus is Mediator of the New Covenant
-

I. The First Covenant

1. There must be a death
2. Death is symbolized by the shedding of blood
3. The first Covenant was instituted with the shedding of blood

II. The New Covenant

1. A death has taken place
 2. Jesus is Mediator of the New Covenant
 3. Thus the promise of eternal inheritance is secured
-

I. The First Covenant

II. The New Covenant

1. A death has taken place
2. Jesus is Mediator of the New Covenant
3. Thus the promise of eternal inheritance is secured

III. The Reminder

I. The First Covenant

II. The New Covenant

1. A death has taken place
2. Jesus is Mediator of the New Covenant
3. Thus the promise of eternal inheritance is secured

III. The Reminder

1. Sin demands payment of death
-

I. The First Covenant

II. The New Covenant

1. A death has taken place
2. Jesus is Mediator of the New Covenant
3. Thus the promise of eternal inheritance is secured

III. The Reminder

1. Sin demands payment of death
 2. What can prevent this?
-

Come to the Fountain of Emmanuel's Blood!
