Discourse 2: God's Response—
The Chaldean's Are Coming

Just as God acts in superlatives of mercy, so He acts in superlatives of judgment.

Discourse 4: God's Response—
Justice Is Coming for the Chaldeans

God's purposes always unfold at the right moment. They don't get stuck in the mud or lost in a blind alley or derailed by debris on the track. They may not ripen according to our timetable, but they always ripen according to His.

Discourse 2: God's Response— The Chaldean's Are Coming

All of them come for violence. Their horde of faces moves forward. They collect captives like sand.
10 They mock at kings And rulers are a laughing matter to them. They laugh at every fortress And heap up rubble to capture it. 11 Then they will sweep through like the wind and pass on. But they will be held guilty, They whose strength is their god.

Discourse 2: God's Response—
The Chaldean's Are Coming

We must resist the temptation to rest in our resources, lest the “goodness of God” that “leads [us] to repentance” cause us instead to say “soul you have many goods laid up for many years to come, take your ease.”

Discourse 4: God's Response—
Justice Is Coming for the Chaldeans

A “soul . . . not right within” us is a very apt description of the effects of the fall, a fall that led us away from dependent trust in God and into pride and self-determination.
