Discourse 3: The Prophet's Protest—
A Victorious Chaldea Is a Greater Injustice

It is yet another testimony to God's unparalleled greatness that even a self-exalting and hubristic nation like Babylon is made to serve His ends.

Discourse 4: God's Response—
Justice Is Coming for the Chaldeans

God's justice is impartial and unfailing and exquisitely precise. No one is so powerful that they can withstand it nor so ingenious that they can outmaneuver it. There is no escape from it except forgiveness.

Justice Is Coming for the Chaldeans

Because you have looted many nations,
All the remainder of the peoples will loot you—Because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, To the town and all its inhabitants.

Discourse 4: God's Response— Justice Is Coming for the Chaldeans

It was God's prerogative to decree that Babylon would hold preeminence among the peoples of the earth and God's prerogative to determine when that preeminence would end. This should cause us to say, along with Jeremiah, "Who would not fear You, O King of the nations? Indeed it is Your due! For among all the wise men of the nations And in all their kingdoms, There is none like You." (Jer. 10:7)
