Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3 Habakkuk 1:2-4

THEME: The Path of Faith in the Providence of God

What do you think should be the posture we take Before God Pt. 3 in the face of injustice, doubts, fears, and lack of hope?

1. Come Before God Pt. 3 honestly and humbly.
2. Come seeking to submit to God's Word, but make connections to your life with careful precision.
3. Avoid the easy route of venting and taking apart. Come prepared to do the hard work to build up your faith.
4. Look for areas to meditate and worship.

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

- I. I went to the right place with injustice, but there is no action.

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

Now He was telling them a parable to show that at all times they ought to pray and not to lose heart, 2 saying, “In a certain city there was a judge who did not fear God and did not respect man. 3 “There was a widow in that city, and she kept coming to him, saying, ‘Give me legal protection from my opponent.’ 4 “For a while he was unwilling; but afterward he said to himself, ‘Even though I do not fear God nor respect man, 5 yet because this widow bothers me, I will give her legal protection, otherwise by continually coming she will wear me out.’ ” 6 And the Lord said, “Hear what the unrighteous judge said; 7 now, will not God bring about justice for His elect who cry to Him day and night, and will He delay long over them? 8 “I tell you that He will bring about justice for them quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?”

Luke 18:1–8

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

It came about on the seventh day that some of the people went out to gather, but they found none. 28 Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep My commandments and My instructions? Exodus 16:27–28

“Only do not rebel against the LORD; and do not fear the people of the land, for they will be our prey. Their protection has been removed from them, and the LORD is with us; do not fear them.” 10 But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the glory of the LORD appeared in the tent of meeting to all the sons of Israel. 11 The LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people spurn Me? And how long will they not believe in Me, despite all the signs which I have performed in their midst? Numbers 14:9–11

And Jesus answered and said, “You unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.” Matthew 17:17

What should THESE “How long” passages do for us?

- Not let circumstances determine God's help
- Look at ourselves before blame God – see the arrogance of complaining loudly while refusing to listen/obey God
- There's limited time to respond to God
- Enough evidence/signs from God – cry for wisdom/seek

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

“Then you will cry out in that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

1 Samuel 8:18

Behold, the LORD'S hand is not so short That it cannot save; Nor is His ear so dull That it cannot hear. 2 But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, And your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not hear.

Isaiah 59:1–2

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Lord, holy and true, will You refrain from judging and avenging our blood on those who dwell on the earth?”

Revelation 6:10

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

- I. I went to the right place with injustice, but there is no action.
- II. Because of Your inaction, wickedness proliferates.

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

The beginning of strife is like letting out water, So abandon the quarrel before it breaks out.

Proverbs 17:14

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3 Habakkuk 1:2-4

If you are numb to injustices, escape because too big or afraid won't do it right, you are part of the problem, but what SHOULD an eternal perspective on wickedness spreading and righting wrongs include?

- It shouldn't stop mission given by God
- Wait and trust – must continue in fellowship with God
- Hope in God's character + eternal purpose + provision for our identity in Him – God knows the grace we need and we can remember that Christ shared in our suffering
- Desire to fight/work for justice (make things right)
- Our presence in darkness brings light of God
- Do right, seek right, share right even in face of tsunami of wickedness

What do you see about God and one caught in the middle of wickedness and injustice in Psalm 22:1-11?

- Sometimes God is quiet
- Yet speaks truth about God as cry for deliverance
- Hope based on past experiences
- Not swayed by voices around speaking doubts
- All bad around so God only source of hope
- Never elevates himself above God even as everything pushes him down
- Sees promised good in and from God

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

But because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God,

Romans 2:5

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you. 2 Your riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and your silver have rusted; and their rust will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. It is in the last days that you have stored up your treasure! 4 Behold, the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been withheld by you, cries out against you; and the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. 5 You have lived luxuriously on the earth and led a life of wanton pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. 6 You have condemned and put to death the righteous man; he does not resist you. James 5:1-6

New American Standard Bible : 1995 update. 1995. LaHabra, CA: The Lockman Foundation.

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

Therefore be patient, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious produce of the soil, being patient about it, until it gets the early and late rains. 8 You too be patient; strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. 9 Do not complain, brethren, against one another, so that you yourselves may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing right at the door. 10 As an example, brethren, of suffering and patience, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. 11 We count those blessed who endured. You have heard of the endurance of Job and have seen the outcome of the Lord's dealings, that the Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.

James 1:7-11

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

“But it shall come about, if you do not obey the LORD your God, to observe to do all His commandments and His statutes with which I charge you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you: 29 and you will grope at noon, as the blind man gropes in darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways; but you shall only be oppressed and robbed continually, with none to save you.

Deuteronomy 28:15, 29

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

- I. I went to the right place with injustice, but there is no action.
- II. Because of Your inaction, wickedness proliferates.
- III. It has infiltrated even the institutions set up to bring justice.

How does the law get ignored? What would “justice never upheld” imply?

- Not care about it
- Those in charge of keeping it are violating it as well
- Something ‘bigger’ than law – not upheld because other goals
- Viewpoints have shifted so change laws in line with people

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

“Now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require from you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, 13 and to keep the LORD’S commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today for your good?

Deuteronomy 10:12–13

Where do we feel pressure to uphold God's Law, to carry out His will righteously? How does this pressure work/show itself?

- When we've done wrong
- When sinful behavior spoken as natural/to be empathized with
- When unsaved ones call you out to a higher standard
- When get to know God better and see what He sees
- When know God is asking and don't want to or feel can't, unsure
- Growing into our identity as followers of Christ – it's what I do, it's who I am

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3 Habakkuk 1:2-4

We don't like the results of God's law being ignored, justice coming out perverted, the wicked surrounding the righteous, and justice coming out perverted, so what are our options? (not just right ones—how do we respond, where do we focus?)

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3 Habakkuk 1:2-4

What would the process of putting God's Word/law in its rightful place in our own lives and then in the lives of God's people include?

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

But one who looks intently at the perfect law, the law of liberty, and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but an effectual doer, this man will be blessed in what he does.

James 1:25

Bringing Injustice Before God Pt. 3

Habakkuk 1:2-4

- I. I went to the right place with injustice, but there is no action.
- II. Because of Your inaction, wickedness proliferates.
- III. It has infiltrated even the institutions set up to bring justice.

A mature faith is one that both sees the issues at hand and yet remains steadfast, living in light of God's providence.
