Discourse 4: God's Response—
Justice Is Coming for the Chaldeans

Man's ability to hurt his kind may seem bottomless, but only God has truly infinite resources. His capacity to punish injustice will always outpace man's capacity to inflict it.

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

We must be grateful for God's revelation, which, though it often challenges our minds, also condescends to our frailty and supplies images of God's greatness that readily speak to our human imaginations.

Discourse 4: God's Response—
Justice Is Coming for the Chaldeans

For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you,
And the devastation of its beasts by which you terrified them, Because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, To the town and all its inhabitants. 18 What profit is the idol when its maker has carved it, Or an image, a teacher of falsehood? For its maker trusts in his own handiwork
When he fashions speechless idols.

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

God's capacity to judge through the elements of the universal curse is as much a part of the description of His glory as is His radiance.
