Hab. 3:3-4

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

The coming of God is a potent concept. God is not aloof, but intimately concerned with His creation and His people. While always present everywhere, He “enters” to make His presence known and carry out His will in an undeniably personal way.

Hab. 3:9

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

No true authority can exist without a mechanism of enforcement. God rules, and His rule inevitably includes the act of chastisement.

Hab. 3:5-6

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

Before Him goes pestilence,
And plague comes after Him.
6 He stood and surveyed the earth;
He looked and startled the nations.
Yes, the perpetual mountains were shattered,
The ancient hills collapsed.
His ways are everlasting.

Hab. 3:5-6

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

By showing us the transitory nature of the most enduring earthly structures when set against God and His kingdom, the Bible teaches us to treat the latter as the preeminent reality.

Hab. 3:10

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

The mountains saw You and quaked;
The downpour of waters swept by.
The deep uttered forth its voice,
It lifted high its hands.
