

“That You May Know”

Luke 1:1-4

“That You May Know” - Luke 1:1-4

I. The Man Luke

“That You May Know” - Luke 1:1-4

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man
3. What about his writing

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man
3. What about his writing

II. The Concern of Luke

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man
3. What about his writing

II. The Concern of Luke

1. That there be an accurate account of Jesus

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man
3. What about his writing

II. The Concern of Luke

1. That there be an accurate account of Jesus
2. Thus he did his research

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man
3. What about his writing

II. The Concern of Luke

1. That there be an accurate account of Jesus
2. Thus he did his research

III. The Desired Result for Luke

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man
3. What about his writing

II. The Concern of Luke

1. That there be an accurate account of Jesus
2. Thus he did his research

III. The Desired Result for Luke

1. Due to his concern for souls

I. The Man Luke

1. Who is he?
2. What do we know about this man
3. What about his writing

II. The Concern of Luke

1. That there be an accurate account of Jesus
2. Thus he did his research

III. The Desired Result for Luke

1. Due to his concern for souls
2. Desire that God’s concern be shared with all – “that you may know”