Hab. 3:15-16

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

Perhaps Scripture offers so many pictures of God's power because fallen human beings are so apt to disbelieve that God can save them or that God can judge them.

Hab. 3:16

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

16 I heard and my inward parts trembled,
At the sound my lips quivered.
Decay enters my bones,
And in my place I tremble.
Because I must wait quietly for the day of distress,
For the people to arise who will invade us.

Hab. 3:16

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

16 I heard and my inward parts trembled,
At the sound my lips quivered.
Decay enters my bones,
And in my place I tremble.
Because I must wait quietly for the day of distress,
For the people to arise who will invade us.

Hab. 3:17-18

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

Though the fig tree should not blossom
And there be no fruit on the vines,
Though the yield of the olive should fail
And the fields produce no food,
Though the flock should be cut off from the fold
And there be no cattle in the stalls,
18 Yet I will exult in the Lord,
I will rejoice in the God of my salvation.

Hab. 3:16-18

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

While we should come before God with honesty about our emotions we must resist the temptation to let our emotions dictate reality. We must direct the gift of our will toward the One who rules reality and remember that our role in His universe is to bring Him glory.
