Hab. 3:16-18

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

While we should come before God with honesty about our emotions, we must resist the temptation to let our emotions dictate reality. We must direct the gift of our will toward the One who rules reality and remember that our role in His universe is to bring Him glory.

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

Though the fig tree should not blossom
And there be no fruit on the vines,
Though the yield of the olive should fail
And the fields produce no food,
Though the flock should be cut off from the fold
And there be no cattle in the stalls,

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

The Lord God is my strength,
And He has made my feet like hinds' feet,
And makes me walk on my high places.
For the choir director, on my stringed instruments.

Discourse 5: The Prophet's Prayer

As Habakkuk's wrestling and final confidence became part of the liturgy of Judah, so God's work in us through our struggles can be part of His work in the hearts of our brothers and sisters.
