Gal. 2:15-17; 3:14

Salvation through faith alone ensures that God receives all the glory for the work of redemption because it brings the penitent sinner to cast himself wholly on God, the merciful, all-sufficient Savior, and to look nowhere else, not even to himself, for the rescue and pardon without which he cannot live.

Gal. 2:18-21

18 For if I rebuild what I have once destroyed, I prove myself to be a transgressor.

19 For through the Law I died to the Law, so that I might live to God.

20 I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

21 I do not nullify the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the Law, then Christ died needlessly.”

15 Brethren, I speak in terms of human relations: even though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been ratified, no one sets it aside or adds conditions to it.
