An Encouragement to Memorize

Memorization . . .

- 1) steeps our minds in the word of grace.
- 2) keeps God's promises and warnings close at hand for the edification and protection of our own souls and those of others.
- 3) allows for unparalleled meditation on God's word.
- 4) helps to endear God's word to our hearts.

Perseverance in spite of not reaching past goals is a hallmark of Christian living.

An Encouragement to Memorize

Memorization . . .

If you're ahead, remember Prov. 24:33-34:

"A little sleep, a little slumber, A little folding of the hands to rest," 34 Then your poverty will come as a robber And your want like an armed man.

If you're behind, remember Joel 2:25:

"Then I will make up to you for the years
That the swarming locust has eaten,
The creeping locust, the stripping locust and the gnawing locust,
My great army which I sent among you.

What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of Life— 2 and the life was manifested, and we have seen and testify and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was manifested to us
