1 John 1:4; 1:8-10

May God grant us grace to find fullness of joy in making known to others a God whose plan of salvation is so staggeringly amazing that His forgiveness of the justified is an act of righteousness on His part because they are clothed in the righteousness of His Son.

1 John 1:5

For human hearts, prone to doubt God's goodness, disagree with His will, and question His commands, the fundamental conviction that He is thoroughly and completely righteous is a powerful and necessary defense against waywardness.
